The Heart of the Mission

Why this Sankalp matters?

We believe that a Dhyanaasthali is more than just a place of silence; it is a home for the soul. In order to honor Swamiji's life time works, we have looked deeply into the needs of our family and have realized that for a seeker to truly dive inward, their outward worries must find a place of rest.

This vision is our humble attempt to make our 8 Dhyanaasthalis across India a heaven where every mother, youngster, and elder feels recognized, supported, and at peace.
